Some local computations in homotopy theory

Abstract: I'll talk about the 'chromatic' nature of stable homotopy theory, mentioning some old results and conjectures and some newer ones, and then describe some recent work on how things seem to work out motivically.