Looking for Courses Taught in English?

Use the search criteria "Language of Instruction" to get a list of courses taught in English. If you check the search criteria "Language of instruction: German/English" you will get a list of courses taught in English on demand which means that the courses are normally taught in German unless an exchange student asks for instruction in English. In that case please contact the instructor ahead of time.

Looking for Course Descriptions and Further Information?

Please don't be frustrated if you don't get all the information you need right away. Some departments publish their course descriptions on their departmental homepages.

Therefore, also check the website of the International Office for further information:

<http://www.uni-regensburg.de/ur-international/english-taught-degree-courses/index.html>

If you can't find a detailed course description or a list of literature used in the course, it is best to contact the instructor directly. The contact details of the instructors can be found in the course catalogue. If you have any difficulties finding information, please contact the International Office.
