KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Prof Dr James Cantor (CDN)
Prof Dr David Finkelhor (USA)
Prof Dr Frank Urbaniok (CH)

Dear colleague

It is now for the seventh time that the International Summer Conference on Research in Forensic Psychiatry is taking place in Regensburg.

The last year has seen a lot of public debate on the scope and the causes (and possible remedies for) sexual offending against children. This is reflected in the current programme with its clear focus on topics such as pedophilia, incest offending or the consequences of victimisation. This thematic focus is also an outcome of the research directive within our department: Together with academic centres in Germany and abroad we are conducting research on the precursors, the incidence, and primary prevention of sexual violence against children. We wish to thank the German Federal Ministry of Family Affairs, Senior Citizens, Women and Youth (BMFSFJ) for funding the conference.

We are very proud that internationally renowned experts agreed to share their insights with us:

Professor Dr Frank Urbaniok, Zurich (CH), Psychiatric-Psychological Service of the ■ Office of Justice, on 'Forensische Prognostik: Grundlagen, Perspektiven, methodische Missverständnisse' (in German),

Professor Dr James Cantor, University of Toronto (CDN), Faculty of Medicine, on ■ 'Towards understanding contradictory findings in the neuroimaging of pedophilic men' and

Professor Dr David Finkelhor, University of New Hampshire (USA), Crimes against ■ Children Research Center, on 'Crime, violence and abuse in the lives of children and youth'.

Furthermore, I would like to thank the delegates who will be presenting at the conference. I am looking forward to a stimulating meeting and hope you will enjoy your stay in Regensburg.

Cordially
