This course explores the advantages and disadvantages of various government systems, treating, for example, the tension between government stability and representational justice, and will focus on Turkey’s current road to a hollowed out presidential system.

R.A. T.A Mert Nomer

Wednesdays 14:00 – 16:00 from 21.06.2017 to 26.07.2017, Philosophie/Theologie PHTG – PT 2.0.4

It’s a lecture, an elective course, and it is offered in the program leading to the state examination in law as well as in various bachelor and master programs containing elements of foreign or international law. A background in law or social science would be helpful.

2ECTS - Punkte