Title:
"Families of Varieties"

Abstract:
We will address the general problem of studying families of varieties depending in a continuous way upon a parameter.

Is it possible to detect the behaviour at a special fiber knowing that one on a generic one? Starting from classical results and techniques (over the complexes), we will see how the problem can be interpreted also in algebraic and arithmetic way (when the fibers can be varieties over fields of different characteristic).