

Groups, orbits, and Cartans

We build a bridge between geometric group theory, topological dynamical systems, and  $C^*$ -algebras. In particular, we establish a dictionary between coarse equivalence for groups and continuous orbit equivalence for topological dynamics. As an application, we show that group (co)homology in a class of coefficients is a coarse invariant. We discuss several consequences.