

JEWISH ODESA: NEGOTIATING IDENTITIES & TRADITIONS IN CONTEMPORARY UKRAINE

BOOK PRESENTATION

JEWISH ODESA

Negotiating Identities and Traditions in Contemporary Ukraine

MARINA SAPRITSKY-NAHUM

© Bloomington: Indiana University Press, 2024

by Dr. Marina Sapritzky-Nahum

Jewish Odesa: Negotiating Identities and Traditions in Contemporary Ukraine

(Bloomington: Indiana University Press, 2024) explores the rich Jewish history of Odesa and its transformation in the post-Soviet and independent Ukraine era.

Dr. Sapritzky-Nahum draws on extensive field research to reveal how Odesa's Jewish identity —once marked by cosmopolitanism and progressive traditions—has been reshaped by migration, Jewish revival, and the evolving Ukrainian national context.

The event will be held in English.

 January 28, 2025 | 16:15-17:45

 University of Regensburg, R008
(Recht & Wirtschaft)

SCAN
ME! >>

