Fax.: +49 (0) 941 29010 50

E-mail: sales-poland@nal-vonminden.com

Contact person: Kinga Dziuba

Location: Regensburg, Germany

Requirements: We are looking for Czech native speakers who are fluent in English or German, our two company languages. Elementary knowledge of German is a necessity. A business, economic or biological/biochemical background would be an asset but is not crucial. The applicant should be experienced in the use of MS Office, Internet, and E-mail. We expect good communication skills and outstanding motivation to learn and work in the field of sales and marketing.

We offer: nal von minden GmbH is a young company with a focus in sales of innovative medical diagnostics. You will learn about emerging technologies and new approaches to the market of medical high-tech products. Currently, our Marketing and Sales Team is comprised of young and enthusiastic colleagues from Germany, France, Spain, Portugal, Netherlands, Poland, Italy and the UK. You will get an insight into all aspects of a marketing and sales organisation: planning the introduction of new products to the market, product management, execution of current sales processes, and key account management. Furthermore, we offer a monthly payment of 400 EUR + a 200 EUR success based bonus which can be achieved every month.

Job description: For the duration of the internship you will be a member of our international sales team and will work together with up to 2 Czech colleagues. Your tasks will include market analysis, competition strategies, preparing advertising materials, planning and roll-out of marketing activities, telephone-marketing, use of customer-relationship-management (CRM) and merchandise management software.

Start date: ASAP

We offer internships for a period of about 3-6 months.
