Deadlines are May 1 for the winter semester, and November 1 for the summer semester.

II. Application documents – Online application form

After having received the official nomination, students will receive further information from us on the application process.

The online registration form and all other important information on the application process can be found on our websites:

German version:

<https://www.uni-regensburg.de/international/incomings/austausch/bewerbung/index.html>

English version:

<https://www.uni-regensburg.de/ur-international/incomings/exchange-programs/application/index.html>

Please note that the online application form is only open within a certain time frame. It will be closed after our application deadlines. A late registration is therefore not possible unless we have made special individual arrangements.

This is what students have to do:

Fill in the online application form (either the German or the English version) and upload the following documents:

- Scan of passport/ ID Card
- Proof of Health Insurance (if available at the time of the application)
- Proof of German knowledge – for students who want to take courses taught in German
- Proof of English knowledge – for students who want to take courses taught in English
- Transcript of Records
- Preliminary Learning Agreement (if it is not possible to get the coordinator's signature at this time, students can send it without)

Only complete applications will be accepted. Please do not wait until the last minute to fill in the online application, as it takes some time to get all documents collected.

III. Admission Requirements /Language Pre-requisites

Admission requirements:

All exchange students have to be in good academic standing and need to be officially nominated by their home university.

With their application, students have to hand in proof of their language skills:

In general, all official tests such as Goethe-Certificates, Test-DaF, TOEFL, IELTS etc. are accepted, as well as confirmations by a language teacher or the international office of the partner university, or the ERASMUS language test. Students should have language skills on level B2 in order to follow academic courses in the respective language. This proof of language skills should not be older than two years at the time of application.

German language skills:

In order to follow academic courses taught in German, students should have a sound level of B2 in German. Please note that the Medical Faculty regards a German level of end of B2/beginning of C1 at the time of their application as the minimum language requirement for their students, especially if they have patient contact. This also applies to the Department of German (NOT German as a Foreign Language but German Language and Literature).

Therefore:

Students with German knowledge of B2 (according to CEFR) or higher can choose courses from both the German and the English-taught course program during the semester (for language pre-requisites in English, please see below) and are advised to arrive in Regensburg for the regular orientation course.

Students with no German knowledge or German knowledge between A1 and B2 (according to CEFR) at the time of arrival:

- These students are urgently advised to take part in the pre-semester intensive language course (ILC) that takes place in September/October and March/April. The course will take place on at least six different levels (A1-C1) as long as we have enough participants for each language level. Costs: 350 Euro for ERASMUS-Students, 430 Euro for all other exchange students (costs may be subject to change). In case you have seen other prices before in our guide for exchange students, please note that unfortunately due to an increase of costs for staff we had to slightly increase the fees for the ILC as well. The new prices come into effect with the ILC in September 2022.
- Even after the ILC, students will in all likelihood lack the necessary pre-requisites to successfully follow courses in German. They should therefore take courses from the English-taught program and/or further classes in German as a Foreign Language. We recommend that students have at least level B2 before they attend German-taught courses.
- Students that cannot attend the ILC (due to e.g. an internship or incompatible term dates) can take part in the English-taught orientation program that takes place a few days before the start of the lecture period.

English language skills:

Students wishing to take courses from the English-taught course program should have English knowledge at level B2 (according to CEFR) or better.

Please note:

Students wishing to take courses from the English-taught course program in the Faculty of Business, Economics and Management Information Systems should have English knowledge at level B2/C1 (according to CEFR) or better.

IV. Visa and Residence Permit

1. Visa

Students with passports from the following countries currently do not need a visa to enter Germany: All EU countries, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, Switzerland.

Students from e.g. Australia, Brazil, Canada, Israel, Japan, New Zealand, South Korea, United Kingdom, and the USA also do not need a visa to enter Germany and can apply for a residence permit after they have arrived in Regensburg (see below). However, please note that the EU is planning to introduce a new travel authorization system for travelers with visa-free access to the European Union/Schengen area. This new visa waiver system is called ETIAS. As soon as it comes into effect, we will let you know.

Students from all other countries need to apply for a visa ("Visum zu Studienzwecken", "Nationales Visum") at the German embassy/consulate, responsible for their place of residence.

Exception: ERASMUS- exchange students who already have a residence permit for study purposes issued by another full member of the "Schengen area" (because they study at a university within the "Schengen area") may enter Germany under the new EU Directive (2016/801) for Researchers and Students (called REST). In that case they neither need to apply for a visa nor for a residence permit in Germany. However, this applies only if the students can present the following documents to the International Office of UR beforehand:

- A valid residence permit issued by the other EU-member country covering also the study period of their time in Regensburg.
- A valid passport copy
- A valid proof of health insurance covering the entire duration of their study period in Germany
- A proof that you have sufficient financial means for your exchange stay in Regensburg (currently 861€ per month)

Students applying for a visa usually need to prove acceptance by a German university (via the "Zulassungsbescheid", letter of acceptance), valid health insurance, and funding of their stay.

Detailed information on the visa process is provided by your local German embassy/consulate:

<https://www.auswaertiges-amt.de/en/einreiseundaufenthalt/visabestimmungen-node>

The visa process takes at least 6 weeks or longer. Therefore, students should inform themselves of all visa requirements and start preparing their documents as soon as they are selected as exchange students, so that once they receive their letter of acceptance, they can immediately start the application process.

2. Residence permit /Registration of address

Once in Regensburg, all students have to register with the local Foreigners' Registration Office, a part of the Regensburg City Administration.

- 1) EU citizens: students only need to register their new address and don't have to pay any fees
- 2) Non-EU citizens: students who don't have a long-term visa (= covering the whole exchange period in Regensburg) need to apply for a German residence permit. The fee for issuing the residence permit is currently about EUR 60 for one semester and EUR 100 for two semesters per person. Additionally, students also need to register their new address.

UR International guides all students through the entire application process.

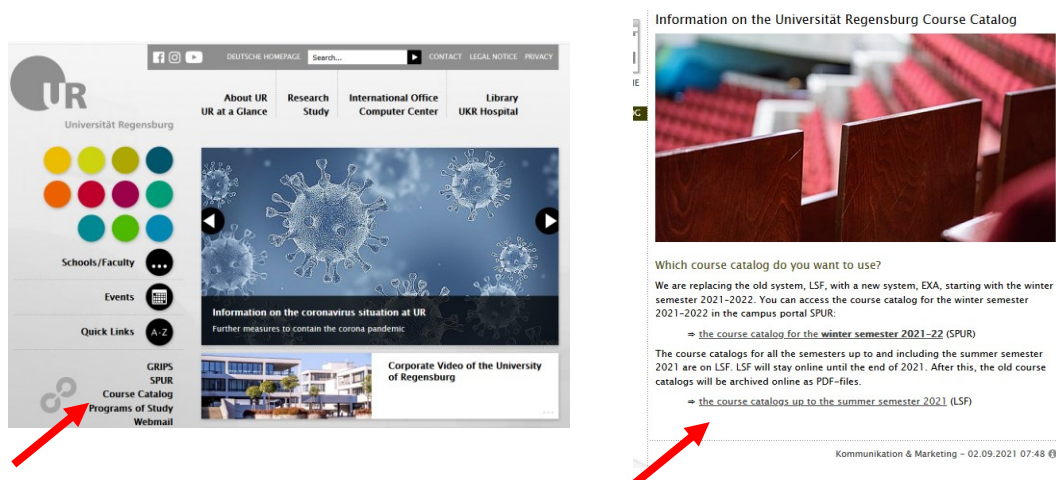

V. Courses

1. Course Information / Course Registration / Course Load

Information on all courses can be accessed via the course catalogue.

This winter semester UR has introduced a new online course system called EXA: Go on the university's website to: <https://www.uni-regensburg.de/studies/course-catalog/home/index.html>

For former course catalogue, please use LSF.

Registration for courses usually takes place after arrival in Regensburg during the Intensive Language Course and/or the Orientation Program. The normal course load is 30 ECTS credits per semester. However, this may vary according to the guidelines by the home institution. Courses can take place in the time frame of Mon-Sat between 8:00 and 20:00. (However, courses on Saturdays are a rare exception.)

2. Courses offered in English

Many of UR's faculties offer several English-taught courses to cater to the needs of those exchange students that have no or only basic knowledge of German. These are not special exchange student courses but regular degree courses taught in English, usually 3rd year Bachelor's or 1st year Master's courses.

You can find information in the course catalogue as well as on our websites.

3. Learning German:

Students can improve their German before the lecture period starts by participating in the pre-semester Intensive Language Course. This course comprises of ca. 120 hrs of instruction and carries 12 ECTS. Possible levels are A1, A2, B1, B1+, B2 and C1 (all levels according to CEFR).

During the lecture period, UR's German as a Foreign Language Unit offers an extensive program of German courses, free of charge. A detailed program can be found here:

<http://www.uni-regensburg.de/zentrum-sprache-kommunikation/daf/kurse/studienbegleitende-deutschkurse/index.html>

The levels are A1, A2, B1, B2, C1 and C2 (according to CEFR).

Students can obtain credits for all of these courses.

The German as a Foreign Language Unit also offers the following official language certificates:

For the levels A1- B2: Students can obtain a telc certificate (additional fees apply).

For the levels C1 and C2: Students can obtain a UNICert certificate (additional fees apply).

4. Learning other languages

Besides learning German, exchange students are also welcome to take courses from the Languages Unit ("SFA"), which teaches all kinds of languages from Arabic to Russian on a credit basis.

Unfortunately, these courses are not free of charge. The fee will be 12.50 EUR per weekly contact hour (1 contact hour being 45min.). I.e. a course that takes place every Monday from 9.00- 10.30 am during the whole of the lecture period will be EUR 25.

The courses offered are listed in the course catalogue (cf. see above, under the header: "Sprache und Kommunikation (ZSK)" – "Studienbegleitende Fremdsprachenausbildung (SFA)").

The summer semester consists of 14 weeks of instruction.

VI. Student Life

1. Housing

All exchange students should apply for student housing in one of the dormitories through the online application portal. The International office will do its best to reserve rooms for all exchange students provided that

- they apply and send their documents within the deadline and
- they come during the regular semester.

Short term stays can only be accommodated subject to availability.

Please note: We will only make a room reservation for students for the duration of their stay (one or two semesters) as indicated on the housing form and according to their nomination.

UR does not have on-campus accommodation. The dormitories are located throughout Regensburg but all have good bus connections to campus (a bus ticket is included in the student ID).

Rooms are single rooms with shared kitchen and bathroom. A limited number of rooms with own kitchen and bathroom are available. If students want/or need such a room, they should please provide this information in their housing application.

A very limited number of double rooms are available. This is not one room shared by two people, but a flat with two individual rooms, bathroom, and kitchen.

The deposit for the room is € 350. The reservation fee is €165 (costs may be subject to changes). Rent is paid via direct debit from a German bank account at the beginning of each month. Monthly rents can vary between € 250 and € 400 (depending on the size, location and amenities of the room).

For further information on accommodation please see our websites.

2. Health Insurance

All students need to prove adequate health insurance to UR (once in Regensburg).

Additionally, non-EU citizens need to prove adequate insurance to the embassy/consulate when applying for a visa and to the Foreigners' Registration Office in Regensburg.

Students from EU-countries who have a European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) do not need to obtain any additional health insurance or proof of health insurance.

Students from Turkey should bring an "AT-11" confirmation and are urgently advised to take out additional Turkish private insurance to top up what is covered via the "AT-11"

All other students need to buy either the German statutory health insurance for students (approx. 130€ per month) or a private German health insurance, or they need to bring health insurance that is accepted by the local Foreigners' Registration Office.

In order to be accepted, there must not be any maximum on the coverage. Co-payments are acceptable but the rest has to be covered by the insurance to 100%. Insurances also need to cover medical and dental treatment, prescription medication, bandages and other materials necessary in aiding recovery, treatment in a hospital, medical treatment with regard to rehabilitation (physical therapy), and treatment for pregnancy and birth.

Please note: Some private health insurances that may be accepted by the embassy or consulate for a 90-day period, do not necessarily have to be accepted by the Foreigners' Registration Office in Regensburg for a semester or year-long stay. Students who are in doubt, should contact International.exchange-student@ur.de and attach details of the insurance plan (in English or German), before taking out private health insurance.

3. Living Costs/ Fees

The minimum living costs are approx. 940 EUR per month. This includes rent and health insurance.

Meals: a meal at the university restaurant ("Mensa") costs ca. 5 EUR.

Student Service Fee: Although exchange students are exempt from paying tuition, every student enrolled at UR needs to pay the so-called "semester fee" or "student services fee". This fee is currently 165 Euro. This fee includes a semester ticket for public transport in Regensburg.

German Broadcast Fee:

The broadcast fee is a fee that all residents of Germany who have their own room have to pay, regardless of whether they use their TV/radio/internet or not. The amount is currently EUR 18.36 per month. This fee is mandatory.

Participants of the ILC should know that they might have to buy bus tickets for public transportation for September/March, as the UR card which includes public transportation is not valid until the start of the semester (October 1st for the winter semester; April 1st for the summer semester).

4. Student Account:

All exchange students receive their own UR student account and login information upon arrival. The internet can be accessed via WiFi throughout our campus after a quick registration of the student's device (smartphone/tablet/notebook/laptop). The up- and download volume on campus is unlimited.

Most student residences provide internet access.

5. Public Transport

The campus, all dormitories and the city center are connected by bus. During rush-hours buses run every ten minutes, some stops are even served every five minutes. The UR student ID card serves as a bus ticket for local buses (see above, no. 3). ILC participants should know that their UR card is not valid during the ILC but only from the official start of the semester (October 1 or April 1) onwards.

6. Airport Pickup

UR does not offer an airport-pickup. Students arriving at Munich Airport can either take a commercial shuttle or the train to get to Regensburg. There is a direct train from Munich Airport to Regensburg, running every hour. Details can be found on our websites.
