

Populism and the Popular

Lehrerfortbildungstagung, 7. Juli 2017

Universität Regensburg, H4

Plenary Talks:

10:00-10:30 Prof. Dr. Anne-Julia Zwierlein: Introduction: Populism and the Popular – Transhistorical Perspectives (H4)

10:30-11:30 Prof. Dr. Volker Depkat: Populism and Democracy in the United States (H4)

13:45-14:45 Dr. Peter Lenz: "No Irish Need Apply": The Irish Catholic Diaspora in America and the Challenge of Nativism (H4)

Workshops:

11:45-12:45 Dr. Katharina Boehm: The European Migrant Crisis and the New Media (CIP PT5)

11:45-12:45 Prof. Dr. Roswitha Fischer: Using corpus-linguistics methods to reveal hidden meanings of "popular" and "populism" (CIP PT4)

11:45-12:45 PD Dr. Ingrid Gessner: Understanding Trump: The Return of Populism? (ZH5)

11:45-12:45 Prof. Dr. Timo Müller: Popular Culture as Political Debate: Hip Hop in the Classroom (ZH6)

15:00-16:00 Dr. Martin Decker: "If that is what the people want": Populism in British Political TV Satires (ZH4)

15:00-16:00 Dr. Ines Detmers: Cool Britannia (ZH5)

15:00-16:00 Sebastian Gräf, M.A., and Heide-Marie Weig, M.A.: Social Media Through the Ages (ZH6)

Organisation:

Prof. Dr. Anne-Julia Zwierlein

Lehrstuhl für Englische Literatur- und Kulturwissenschaft

Institut für Anglistik und Amerikanistik

Plenary talks open to all!