

UNIVERSITÄT REGENSBURG

A W 3 Professorship (Chair) of Human Genetics is to be filled as of October 1, 2022, in the Faculty of Medicine.

The duties of the post include teaching and research in the subject, patient care (diagnostics), and in heading the Institutes of Human Genetics and Clinical Human Genetics at the university and university hospital, respectively. Applicants should be able to show very good scientific achievements with the corresponding attainment of third-party funding, broad expertise in teaching, and established clinical experience in the area. The professor's research should be geared to the specializations of the faculty and the strategic orientation of the University Hospital. Integration in collaborative and joint projects is expected.

Prerequisites for taking up the position are, alongside the general conditions from public sector employment law, a completed university degree, pedagogic suitability, particular aptitude for academic work, generally shown by a doctoral degree, and further academic performance shown via a habilitation or equivalent which may have been performed outside higher educational institutions or as part of the duties of a junior professor. Recognition as a medical specialist in medical genetics or recognition as a "Fachhumangenetiker/in" (specialist in human genetics) by the German Society of Human Genetics (GfH) is desired.

Universität Regensburg is particularly committed to ensuring the compatibility of family and working life (for more information, see <http://www.uni-regensburg.de/familienservice>). To fulfill the equality directive and increase the number of female professors, we explicitly encourage applications from qualified women.

In case of essentially similar suitability, applicants with severe disabilities are given preferential consideration.

The prerequisites for appointment under civil servant law are based on the provisions of the Bavarian Public Service Code (BayBG) and the Bavarian University Staff Act (BayHSchPG). Please note the age limit specified in Art. 10 Para. 3 BayHSchPG.

Applications containing the normal documents (resume, certificates, list of publications with copies of the most important papers) should be submitted by

to the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine of Universität Regensburg, Franz-Josef-Strauß-Allee 11, 93053 Regensburg. Please send your application both in writing and in electronic form (USB stick or by email to berufungen.medizin@ur.de). To do this please use the application form at: <http://www.uni-regensburg.de/Fakultaeten/Medizin/index.html>.
