HEIs in Bavaria

11 (research) Universities
9 of them state funded
→ focus on research and academic training

19 Universities of Applied Sciences
17 of them state funded
→ application-oriented teaching and research

6 Universities of Arts
→ higher education in fields such as fine arts, music, film or theatre
Research

- Excellent research at the universities is integrated into higher education.

- Researchers of different HEIs and their non-university partners cooperate in interdisciplinary Research Associations dedicated to selected topics of highest relevance for the future.

- Regular publications in highly ranked journals.

- Doctoral degrees can be completed:
  - via the individual doctoral supervision scheme
  - via structured (international) doctoral programs
  - working as a research associate at the chair of the supervising professor
  - within a joint project of a university and a university of applied sciences or a company
Education

- Tuition is free of charge.

- Institutes of higher education (HEIs) act as autonomous entities (e.g. curricula, exams, appointment of professors).

- Courses are regularly evaluated by students to ensure continuous quality improvement → Positive results indicate a high level of student satisfaction.

- Most foreign degrees are recognized.

- Most study programs adopt the Bologna structure:
  - 3-year Bachelor program
  - 2-year Master program
Knowledge and Technology Transfer

- Applied research and development are conducted in close cooperation with businesses, schools, hospitals, museums, state archives and other organizations.

- Specialized university departments provide consulting for young entrepreneurs. This results in lively start-up scenes at the HEIs.

- High share of third-party funding (e.g. research foundations, state funding, EU, business).

- The Bavarian Research and Innovation Agency offers integrated counseling and support for HEIs, companies and their international partners on funding programs of the EU, the Federal Republic of Germany and the Free State of Bavaria.
Initiatives towards Excellence
