

Zagreb Law Summer School 2026

Copyright Law in the Digital Era – Media, Creativity and Artificial Intelligence

29 June – 10 July 2026 | Faculty of Law, University of Zagreb

Why join?

This two-week Summer School explores copyright law in the digital era. It covers the fundamentals, copyright in media and creative industries, and the cutting-edge legal challenges of generative artificial intelligence.

Programme Highlights

- Lectures by distinguished Croatian and international experts
- Focus on media, creative industries, and AI
- Practical workshops and study visits
- Cultural and social events in Zagreb
- Certificate equivalent to 4 ECTS

Participation Fee

EUR 600

The fee includes tuition, study materials, coffee breaks, welcome dinner, farewell reception, cultural and social activities, and a Zagreb city tour.

Who can apply?

Students with at least 60 ECTS completed in law or related disciplines (media, sociology, political science, economics). English language proficiency of at least B2 level is required.

How to apply?

Send your CV, a 300-word motivation letter, proof of academic background, and proof of English proficiency to: summerschool@pravo.unizg.hr

Deadline: 15 May 2026

Contact

Faculty of Law, University of Zagreb

Email: summerschool@pravo.unizg.hr

Website: www.pravo.unizg.hr