August Lösch Prize 2027

The August Lösch Association and the City of Heidenheim jointly grant the August Lösch Prize. The prize was established in 1972. It is named after August Lösch (1906-1945), one of the founders of modern Regional Science.

The prize is meant to reward outstanding research in Regional Science, and carries an award of 5,000 Euro. (Joint recipients of the prize share the award.)

The Association now invites submissions for the 2027 Prize:

- All types of manuscripts (i.e. papers or monographs) will be considered.
- Papers must be accepted for publication in a peer reviewed journal.
- All research submitted should be within 8 years of Ph.D. completion.
- Deadline: February 5th 2027.
- Attach CV (including date of Ph.D. conferral) and a brief (3 page max.) English language summary of your submission.
- Please send your submission in single file pdf (of no more than 15 MB) to august-loesch.prize@uni-regensburg.de.

Please direct any questions to kristof.dascher@ur.de.

The prize winner, or the prize winners, will be decided by the prize committee (Kristian Behrens, Rainald Borck, Hans Koster, Gunther Maier, Annekatrin Niebuhr, Matthias Premer, Javier Revilla-Diez, Andres Rodriguez-Pose, Roger Vickerman, and Kristof Dascher).

August-Lösch Conference and Award

The prize winner(s), and one author from the submissions shortlisted 2nd to 4th each, will be invited to present at the August-Lösch-Conference, with travel and accommodation costs covered. The conference will be at Humboldt University Berlin, June 18th-19th, 2027. The prize will be awarded at that conference, in Berlin. Gabriel Ahlfeldt is the local organizer, and Hans Koster is the keynote speaker.
