

Universität Regensburg
Faculty of Philosophy, Art History, History and Humanities invites applications for a junior professorship of Public History (grade W1 with tenure-track leading to W2) for a period of three years in the first phase with the legal status of temporary civil servant (Beamtenverhältnis auf Zeit), to be appointed as soon as possible. The tenure-track professorship is supported by the Federal/Länder program for the promotion of young scientists (tenure-track program). Universität Regensburg offers the prospect, upon positive tenure evaluation, of transferring to a permanent position as W2 grade professor with the legal status civil servant for life (Beamtenverhältnis auf Lebenszeit). The requirements for the tenure evaluation can be found at <https://go.uni-regensburg.de/tt-satzung>.

The successful candidate will represent the field of Public History in a broad and comprehensive manner, including the various substantive and methodological aspects of the public dissemination, perception, and application of history. In particular, this concerns questions and problems associated with cultures of remembrance, the politics of memory, the marketing of history, and tourism. We are also interested in the institutionalization and transmission of history through memorial and world heritage sites, documentation centres, and museums. We are looking for a candidate with proven ability in these fields of Public History, demonstrated by an above-average Ph.D. in History or Cultural Studies. The successful candidate is expected to contribute in an engaged and team-oriented way to the M.A. degree in "Public History and Culture" ("Public History und Kulturvermittlung"), the planned "Centre for the Comparative and Applied Study of Remembrance Cultures" ("Zentrum vergleichender und angewandter Erinnerungskultur"), and the university's teacher training (Lehramtsstudium).

Prerequisites for taking up the position are, in accordance with Art. 14 Bavarian University Staff Act (BayHSchPG), alongside the general conditions from public sector employment law, a completed university degree, pedagogic suitability, and particular aptitude for academic work, generally shown by a doctoral degree.

Applicant must have changed universities following the doctorate or have been academically active for at least two years somewhere other than Universität Regensburg before the application.

Universität Regensburg is particularly committed to reconciling family and working life (for more information, see <http://www.uni-regensburg.de/chancengleichheit>). To fulfill the equality directive and increase the number of female professors, we explicitly encourage applications from qualified women.

In case of essentially similar suitability, applicants with severe disabilities will be preferentially selected.

The prerequisites for appointment under civil servant law are based on the provisions of the Bavarian Public Service Code (BayBG) and the Bavarian University Staff Act (BayHSchPG).

Applications containing the normal documents (resume, certificates, list of publications with copies of the most important papers) should be submitted electronically

by 20 October 2020 to the Dean of the Faculty of Philosophy, Art History, History and Humanities, University of Regensburg, D-93040 Regensburg, Email: pkgg.dekanat@ur.de

Information on data protection can be found at <https://www.uni-regensburg.de/datenschutz/>.

This is the English translation of a German job advertisement published by the Universität Regensburg at <https://go.uni-regensburg.de/stellen-professuren>. Only the original German text is legally binding.