

Universität Regensburg

Faculty of Languages, Literature, and Cultures invites applications for a developing professorship of Multilingualism

(grade W 2 with tenure-track leading to professorship for life at grade W 2)

for a period of six years with the legal status of temporary civil servant (Beamtenverhältnis auf Zeit), to be appointed as soon as possible. The Universität Regensburg offers the prospect of transferring to a permanent position as W2 grade professor with the legal status civil servant for life (Beamtenverhältnis auf Lebenszeit), provided the tenure evaluation is positive. The requirements for the tenure evaluation can be found at <https://go.uni-regensburg.de/tt-satzung>.

A successful applicant (m/f/d) will cover the field of multilingualism in research and teaching and will have international standing in the field. Experience with research projects and the acquisition of external funding is expected. A willingness to engage in interdisciplinary networking and cooperation in the context of the faculty's research and teaching activities in the fields of multilingualism and regionality as well as in the context of the university's research priorities (Area Studies, Digital Humanities) is also expected. The holder of the position (m/f/f) is responsible for the management and expansion of the Forum Multilingualism and Regionality (FoMuR). Participation in academic self-administration is expected.

In accordance with Universität Regensburg's statute on the appointment of tenure-track professors from February 14, 2020, the prerequisites named in Art. 14 Bavarian University Staff Act (BayHSchPG) apply to the appointment of a developing professor. This means, above all, particular aptitude for academic work, generally shown by a doctoral degree with distinction, and further excellent academic performance commensurate with the early phase of a career.

Applicant must have changed universities following the doctorate or have been academically active for at least two years somewhere other than Universität Regensburg before the application.

Universität Regensburg is particularly committed to reconciling family and working life (for more information, see <http://www.uni-regensburg.de/chancengleichheit>). To fulfill the equality directive and increase the number of female professors, we explicitly encourage applications from qualified women.

In case of essentially similar suitability, applicants with severe disabilities will be preferentially selected.

The prerequisites for appointment under civil servant law are based on the provisions of the Bavarian Public Service Code (BayBG) and the Bavarian University Staff Act (BayHSchPG).

Applications containing the usual documents (resume, certificates, list of publications with copies of the most important papers) should be submitted exclusively electronically (PDF)

by 30 November 2020

to the Dean of the Faculty of Languages, Literature and Cultures of Universität Regensburg, fakultaet.slk@ur.de.

Information on data protection can be found at <https://www.uni-regensburg.de/datenschutz/>.

This is the English translation of a German job advertisement published by the Universität Regensburg at <https://go.uni-regensburg.de/stellen-professuren>. Only the original German text is legally binding.