Application for Master's Degree

Applications for Master's Degrees must be submitted to the responsible faculty.

Please note: Application Deadlines might be earlier – sometimes already in December/April.

For more information about the application prerequisites, the application process and contact of the responsible advisors: UR Homepage ► Studium ► Studienangebot ► Abschlüsse ► Master

Only after admission by the Faculty will you be contacted directly about the online registration.

Do you want to attend a preparatory (semester) German course, before you start with your degree course?

- If your level of German is below B2, yet at least A2, you are able to apply for a preparatory German course (Exception: Applicants for Medicine, Dentistry and Molecular Medicine).
- The following certificates are accepted at application: OnSET-Deutsch, Goethe-Zertifikat, telc Deutsch, ÖSD, TestDaF, UNiCert Deutsch (ab Stufe I).
More information can be found on the website of German as Foreign Language:
UR Homepage ► Sprachenzentrum ► DaF ► Kursangebote ► Studienvorbereitende Deutschkurse
- Applicants for a Master's Degree can only participate in the preparatory German course if they have been already accepted for the Master's program.

Please note: For the German course, a course fee of 530.- Euro per semester is raised in addition to the semester fee of roughly 150.- Euro.

What happens after your application has been sent online?

1. Examination of Application by the Registrar's Office (Master's Application by Faculty). Once the application is being processed, the portal states "valid". If documents are missing, you can see in the portal which documents you still have to submit online.
2. The results of your application are available only online. A letter of admission or rejection can be printed out on the portal and is also valid for the German embassy without a signature. Notices of admission or rejection will not be sent additionally by mailing services.
3. Proof of language proficiency for your studies: If you are to participate in the DSH-exam before study start, you will find further information on application in your letter of acceptance.
Proof of language for German course: You are assigned to the appropriate level based on submitted certificates. Alternatively, an onSET Test for a more accurate placement is offered before semester start.
4. Orientation program Startklar: in the 2 weeks before semester start, our team of tutors accompanies and aids you with formalities, including enrollment. The program takes place in early October for the winter term and in early April for the summer term.
