<th>What happens after your application has been sent online?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Examination of Application by the Registrar’s Office (Master’s Application by Faculty). Once the application is being processed, the portal states “valid”. If documents are missing, you can see in the portal which documents you still have to submit online.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. The results of your application are available only online. A letter of admission or rejection can be printed out on the portal and is also valid for the German embassy without a signature. Notices of admission or rejection will not be sent additionally by mailing services.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Proof of language proficiency for your studies: If you are to participate in the DSH-exam before study start, you will find further information on application in your letter of acceptance. Proof of language for German course: A mandatory placement test will take place before semester start. The result of this test defines the suitable level for you.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Orientation program Startklar: in the 2 weeks before semester start, our team of tutors accompanies and aids you with formalities, including enrollment.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Student confirmation (“Immatralkationsbescheinigung”): During the enrolment in person, you will receive your student ID card. After this step, you have access to an online portal where you can find and download the specific student confirmation for you.</td>
