

WINTERSEMESTER 2018/19

33117 Vorlesung „The industrialization of Europe in the ‘long 19th century’“

Do 08:30-10:00 Uhr, s.t., H 7

Subject of the course is the process of industrialization in the ‘long’ 19th century, starting with the mechanization of cotton spinning in late 18th century England and ending with the outbreak of World War I. The geographical focus is Europe.

Sprache: englisch

Leistungsnachweis: Klausur

Einführende Literatur

Broadberry, Stephen N.; O'Rourke, Kevin H.; Williamson, Jeffrey G. (eds.) (2010): The Cambridge Economic History of Modern Europe. 2 vols. Cambridge: Cambridge University Press