WOMEN’S PUBLIC SPEECH IN VICTORIAN MASS ORAL AND PRINT CULTURES

BIBLIOGRAPHY, pp. 1-53

1. Orality and Literacy: General

2. Victorian Oral Cultures
   2.1. Victorian Orality and Literacy
   2.2. Listening: Attention, Mesmerism, Hypnosis
   2.3. Sermons
   2.4. Lectures
      2.4.1. Science Lectures
      2.4.2. Comic Lectures, Humorous Monologues
   2.5. Political Speeches
   2.6. Author Readings
   2.7. Penny Readings and Recitations
   2.8. Theatre Culture
   2.9. Rhetoric and Elocution
   2.10. Voice in Early Cinema

3. Victorian Education and Female Emancipation
   3.1. Victorian Education: General
   3.2. Lecture Institutions; Literary and Scientific Institutions
      3.2.1. Royal Institution
      3.2.2. Birkbeck Literary and Scientific Institution
      3.2.3. London Institution
   3.3. Victorian Female Education
   3.4. Suffragettism and Female Public Speech

4. Victorian Periodicals
   4.1. Research Tools, Bibliographies, Databases
   4.2. Research on Victorian Periodicals: General
   4.3. Women and Periodicals
   4.4. Sensation Fiction and Serialisation
   4.5. Research on Specific Periodicals
      4.5.1. Belgravia
      4.5.2. Bow Bells
      4.5.3. Good Words
      4.5.4. The Leisure Hour
      4.5.5. The London Journal
      4.5.6. The London Reader
      4.5.7. The Monthly Packet
      4.5.8. Punch
      4.5.9. Strand Magazine
      4.5.10. Sunday at Home
      4.5.11. The Women’s Penny Paper

5. New Woman Writing
1. Orality and Literacy: General

2. Victorian Oral Cultures

2.1. Victorian Orality and Literacy

2.2. Listening: Attention, Mesmerism, Hypnosis

2.3. Sermons

2.4. Lectures

2.4.1. Science Lectures

2.4.2. Comic Lectures, Humorous Monologues

2.5. Political Speeches

2.6. Author Readings

2.7. Penny Readings and Recitations

2.8. Theatre Culture

2.9. Rhetoric and Elocution

2.10. Voice in Early Cinema

3. Victorian Education and Female Emancipation

3.1. Victorian Education: General

3.2. Lecture Institutions; Literary and Scientific Institutions

3.2.1. Royal Institution

James, Frank A.J.L. (n.d.) Guides to the Royal Institution of Great Britain: 1, History.

3.2.2. Birkbeck Literary and Scientific Institution

3.2.3. London Institution

3.3. Victorian Female Education

3.4. Suffragettism and Female Public Speech

4. Victorian Periodicals

4.1. Research Tools, Bibliographies, Databases

Curran Index, online: Updates to the Wellesley Index.

4.2. Research on Victorian Periodicals: General

4.3. Women and Periodicals

4.4. Sensation Fiction and Serialisation

4.5. Research on Specific Periodicals

4.5.1. Belgravia

4.5.2. Bow Bells

4.5.3. Good Words

4.5.4. The Leisure Hour

4.5.5. The London Journal

4.5.6. The London Reader

4.5.7. The Monthly Packet
Moruzi, Kristine (2010). ”‘Never read anything that can at all unsettle your religious faith’: Reading and Writing in The Monthly Packet.” Women’s Writing 17.2, 288-304.

4.5.8. Punch

4.5.9. Strand Magazine

4.5.10. Sunday at Home

4.5.11. The Women’s Penny Paper

5. New Woman Writing

